

Language Activity Worksheet:

Use the underlined linking words and expressions from the text above to complete this exercise. In some cases there is more than one possible answer.

Every local government should ensure that there are enough safe outdoor spaces for children to play _____ outdoor activities play a vital part in childhood development. Playgrounds _____ provide vital space for children to socialise, _____ a safe environment for physical exercise away from the dangers of traffic. _____ local governments often prioritise other interests such as parking spaces _____ they are financially more viable _____ overwhelming evidence that shows the benefit of social spaces to society. _____ there tends to be a lack of playgrounds, especially in larger cities where space is at a premium. In the country, _____, there is considerably more space available. _____ lower population density and less government income mean that there is _____ often a lack of playgrounds in the country _____ the availability of space. There is a common misconception that the country is a much safer place for children to play _____ that _____ formal playgrounds are unnecessary. _____ due to the increasingly industrialised farming operations _____ dangers from the natural environment, safe playgrounds are as important in the country as they are in big cities. Not all parents are able to provide safe outdoor play areas for their children _____ it is the government's responsibility to fund playgrounds regardless of the area.