Advanced Collations

Read the following text. Highlight or underline the collocations connected with study and motivation. The first two have been done for you.

I'm studying accounting at the moment and I find it really hard to keep motivated sometimes. There are so many facts and figures to learn and the exams are really gruelling so you've got to study hard all the time. I find the only way to do it is to set myself a goal to give me something to aim for. For me, that's the only thing that helps with the learning process. It doesn't have to be a big thing, it might just be rewarding myself with a night out if I'm successful in a test. I know I'll reap the rewards one day, when I'm qualified. My aim is to be qualified by the time I'm 25.
